GENERAL PRICE LIST

Effective as of October 3, 2019 and subject to change.

The goods and services shown below (within) are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

N.J.A.C. 13:36-5.21 – A person who owns 50 percent or greater interest in this registered mortuary also owns 50 percent or greater interest in the following registered mortuaries in the State of New Jersey: Martin Funeral Home, Clinton; and Knoll-Devoe Funeral Home and Cremation Service, Washington.

INTRODUCTION

It can be difficult to think about “end of life” especially when it relates to someone we care about. At the time of the initial loss we focus our attention on tasks related to the unfinished business of our loved one. Planning services and tending to those who have come to offer condolences can distract us from our own needs as the bereaved. Consequently, our own physical, emotional, and spiritual needs are suspended.

We understand this is a challenging time and we would like to offer support as you begin to think about resuming life after your loss.

At 1:00 p.m. on the second Saturday of each month, a Grief Recovery Specialist is available at Martin Funeral Home to help bring a sense of peace and comfort to you and your family as you begin to process your own feelings related to your loss.

Please feel free to inquire about more information so that we can reserve you a spot and continue our commitment to support you and your family during this difficult time.

Sincerely,
Christopher J. Knoll

However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.
